PASSPORT NEEDED
- Valid, updated passports are required to register for this conference and to book airfare.
- For example, if your passport expires between March 2019 and August 2019, you must renew your passport before travel as TSA will deny boarding.

ELIGIBILITY:
Only those in the following distributions are eligible for the convention: Brokerage General Agency, Direct Markets, Long Term Care, Medicare Supplement, and certain Marketing Organizations (e.g., agent numbers beginning with 02, 05, 43, 44, 45, 59, 67, 70, 78, 94, and 97). Please check with your Marketing Organization leadership to determine whether or not you are eligible to participate.

Program excludes non-commissionable policy rewrites. Split cases are permitted; the paid premium allocated to each producer for qualification purposes will match the agreed percentage split.

Convention expenses include: transportation, hotel room charges, organized meals, allowances for meals that are not organized, and organized tours, entertainment, etc. as designated by Transamerica. The trip is not transferable. If the qualifier cannot attend the convention, no other compensation will be offered. Under current tax laws and regulations, gross income includes amounts received as prizes or awards. Accordingly, the value of the trip will be treated as additional compensation for purposes of any applicable tax reporting.

The qualifier may bring a spouse or one adult guest to the convention. Although qualifiers may bring children to the convention, qualifiers must pay for all expenses incurred by his or her dependent children, including travel and any costs associated with attending the convention.

The company reserves the right to modify the program and to further cease paid premium credits towards the program at any time without notice. Total number of producer/writing agent qualifiers is limited to the top 80 who meet the qualification criteria.
